

Emma Fong Softball College of the Holy Cross

Emma will be attending the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts and competing for the Division I Crusaders softball team in the Patriot League. Emma has been a member of the Mira Costa varsity softball team since her freshman year and Scholar Athlete as well. Currently, Emma plays club softball for the California Cruisers 18U Watson out of Dana Hills. Emma would like to thank her family, friends, coaches, teachers, and mentors for all their support through her recruiting process and through the years! She can't wait to compete for her dream school next year. Go Crusaders!

