

Madeline Bonanni

Women's Beach Volleyball

University of California Los Angeles

Madeline Bonanni will be attending UCLA to compete for the Bruin Beach Volleyball team. Madeline has been a member of the Mira Costa varsity beach volleyball team since her freshman year. She has also been a part of the indoor volleyball program since her freshman year. Currently, Madeline ranks in the top 5 according to California Beach Volleyball Association. She has been named to president's academic honor roll each semester at Mira Costa and has also received a scholar/athlete award every year. Madeline credits her coaches at Elite Beach Volleyball Club, Holly McPeak, Patty Dodd and Jose Loiola for helping her achieve her dreams of playing on the reigning national championship program at UCLA. She would also like to thank her family and friends for their support!

