

Nikki Underwood

Women's Indoor Volleyball

Duke University

Nikki Underwood will be playing volleyball at Duke University. Nikki has been a member of the Mira Costa Varsity volleyball team since her sophomore year and was selected MVP of the Santa Barbara Tournament and made the All-tournament team at the Dave Mohs tournament. She was also named MVP of Costa's JV team her freshman year. Nikki has always played club volleyball for Sunshine Volleyball Club and has competed at Junior Nationals in the open division every year. Nikki would like to thank her parents, her sisters Alexa and Sami, coaches, teammates, teachers and friends for all their support throughout her recruiting process! She's so excited to be a Blue Devil and competing in the ACC!
